Read Any Good Books?

To encourage the reading of some classic Christian books, Pastor Kynes will be hosting a book discussion of Jonathan Edwards' Religious Affections on Saturday morning, Nov. 11 at 9:00 in the Adelpheos Room. Writing during the religious revival of the First Great Awakening, Edwards explores the question of what are the true marks of real Christian spiritual life. Anyone is welcome to join in the discussion—please contact Pastor Kynes if you intend to come, billkynes@gmail.com.

Connect with an International Student

This coming Friday afternoon (Oct 20), from 12-2pm, a whole group of international students will gather who want to practice English and we need your help. Join us to chat with students, build a friendship and invite God to demonstrate & speak His love through you.

Where? NVCC Annandale Campus, CA building, 2nd floor Café Park in the garage near Wakefield Chapel road. Walk along the lower sidewalk past the CC & CM building. The last and newest looking building is the CA building.

Be a Conversation Partner: A second opportunity is to be a conversation partner for an International student! There are around 20 students still waiting to be paired with someone for conversational English. Would you be up for talking with an International student a few times a month? Practice asking good questions, listening well and sharing your life.

Studies in 2 Timothy

"A Turning Point in History" (2 Tim. 1:1-7)

This second letter of Paul to Timothy marks a hidden turning point in history. This morning we look at its author and its recipient, learning lessons that will help us make history in our day.

I. From Paul—An Apostle in Prison

Be Reminded—

A. God's Method—

"Take up your cross and follow me."

B. God's Message—

"I have come that you may have life
in all its abundance."

II. To Timothy—A Young and Timid Protégé

Be Encouraged—

A. By a Faithful Friendship

B. By a Godly Heritage

C. By a Divine Gift

What will be a turning point in your life?
