Community Group Service Opportunity!

International Friends would love for your community group to provide a meal for a Wednesday night meeting this semester. It's much more fun and doable if the meal elements are divided among a group. For example, one person/family can provide the meat, another a starch or veggie, a third any additional elements.

What: A meal for 30-40 students (beef and chicken are the best meats, but vegetarian is great, too. Pork/bacon is avoided by many of our students.)

When: Wednesday nights, meal drop-off by 6:45 (alternative drop-off arrangements can be made!)

The Cynic's Taunt Job 1-2

This morning we consider the dramatic stage that is set for the struggle to come—the Lord's encounter with the Satanic accuser. The question that is raised is a very contemporary one—is there really such a thing as a true believer? or, is there really a God worth believing in?

"I hate cynicism a great deal worse than I do the devil, unless, perhaps, the two were the same thing."
-- Robert Louis Stevenson

I. A Godly Man

*"Job . . . was blameless and upright;
he feared God and shunned evil" (1:1).*

II. A Cynical Accuser

"Does Job fear God for nothing?" (1:9).

III. A Divine Gambit

*"Very well, then,
everything he has is in your hands" (1:12).*
